

Junior Software Developer (Java/JEE)

Sword Services Greece is seeking to recruit energetic individuals to join our Software Development team in Greece as a Junior Software Developer. The successful candidate will work in a multinational environment on a multitude of tasks supporting our core business in large International Information Systems. The company is currently expanding its activities in Greece offering an optimum career advancement opportunity for the successful candidate who should combine a relevant educational background, with enthusiasm and eagerness.

Responsibilities

- Development and maintenance of Java Enterprise applications (JEE);
- Writing of technical documentation;
- Collaboration with the project team to define and design technical solutions;
- Estimation of own tasks required to complete development projects;
- Assistance with deployment and configuration of JEE applications;
- Development and execution of JUnit tests.

Required Qualifications & Experience

- Bachelor's degree (or prospective graduates) in Computer Science or other relevant field (i.e. Engineering);
- Experience with Java, HTML, JavaScript, XML and SQL;
- Good knowledge of Object oriented programming concepts;
- Good knowledge of Relational Databases;
- Ability to draft technical documentation;
- Excellent command of the English language both written & spoken.

Desired Skills

- Experience in developing Web applications and Web Services (SOAP or RESTful);
- Knowledge of JEE (including JSP, Servlets, EJBs) or Spring Framework;
- Knowledge of JEE Application Servers (i.e WebLogic, JBoss);

Personal Characteristics

- Quick learner;
- Attention to detail and strong sense of responsibility;
- Good analytical and problem-solving skills;
- Proactively manage own tasks and projects to agreed deadlines;
- Ability to work effectively & efficiently with various diverse work teams (Development, Testing and Project Management).

About Sword Group

Sword is a high added-value advisory and integration IT services company with a current headcount of 2200+ staff operating in more than 50 countries. With its Information Systems oriented approach that integrates high-performing project management methodologies, Sword tailors its know-how to provide innovative solutions that meet the strategic challenges of its clients and the adaptation demands of their information systems. To reach this target, Sword has developed an industrialised production model organised around specialised service centers that guarantee the provision of proximity services, high-added value know-how and optimised economic approaches.

Applications must be in the English language