Network Management Junior Engineer
Code: NME 001
Location: Athens

Main Tasks:

- Participate in the selection, configuration, and support of all enterprise Network management, tools solutions
- Automate system processes and develop tooling for easing the administration burden
- Participate in the evaluation, selection, and deployment of new technologies and tools
- Work with colleagues to optimize overall applications performance
- Work closely with internal teams and stakeholders
- Ensure thorough capacity, health, and security monitoring is present at every layer of the platforms and application stacks
- Focus on the delivery of prescriptive, automated monitoring for all critical systems and services
- Research, evaluate, and recommend architectural improvements and new technologies
- Know how to use configuration management and orchestration tools to rapidly deploy and manage highly consistent, prescriptive systems and services
- Engage in active listening and have effective written and verbal communication skills
- Demonstrate a proven ability to learn and grow through self-study

Basic Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree in an IT related field
- Development skills in Python, J2EE/JSP
- Good understanding of RDBMS and SQL

Please apply by forwarding your resume to this email address: career@wind.gr